What is the European Youth Parliament Ireland?

European Youth Parliament (EYP) Ireland is a non-profit youth organisation which actively engages young people in discussion of Europe and global political issues. Founded in the 1970s in France by a secondary school teacher, it gradually grew to other member states and to Ireland in 1997. We have organised weekend-long conferences for secondary school students throughout Ireland each year, promoting awareness of European issues among young people. We seek to empower young adults to question the world around them and come up with innovative solutions to European and Global problems, whilst emphasising cooperation and respect.

What does an EYP session involve?

This regional session will take place over the weekend of the 29th to the 31st of January starting on Friday after school and ending on Sunday evening.

Friday: Delegates will be split into committees of 10-15 people and they will engage in team building which strengthens their group work skills.

Saturday: They will discuss the problems and solutions of the topic, creating a Resolution Booklet of their topic.

Sunday: All committees will come together to debate these resolutions at the General Assembly, replicating the European Parliament in Brussels.
